On the authority of Abu'Abbas 'Abdullah the son of 'Abbas (may Allah be pleased with them both), who said:

"O young man, I shall teach you some words. Be mindful of Allah, and Allah will protect you.
Be mindful of Allah and you will find Him in front of you. If you ask, then ask Allah [Alone]; and if you seek help, then seek help from Allah [Alone]. And know that if the Ummah were to gather together to benefit you with anything, they would not benefit you except with what Allah had already prescribed for you. And if they were to gather together to harm you with anything, they would not harm you except with what Allah had already prescribed (decreed) for you. The Pens have been lifted and the Pages have dried."

Did you know that some kinds of poems have a shape all their own? A Diamanté is a diamond-shaped poem that is fun to write. Knowing about nouns, verbs, and adjectives will help you write a diamanté. Look at the diamanté below. It has seven lines. Each line is made up of words of one part of speech. The noun in the first and last lines are antonyms—words that mean the opposite of each other. Now write a Diamanté of your own about Islam. Begin by choosing two nouns that have the opposite meanings.
